

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Tanya Stones is a Bulgarian actress based in London. After she graduates her Bachelor degree "Acting" in NBU Drama School in Sofia Bulgaria, the young actress applies in Ealing Studios. Luckily she is accepted in the 6 month Acting for Film course in The West London based Academy. During her training in her native country Tanya is playing in the National Theatre "Ivan Vazov" with a leading role in the play "Flying" with which the theatre group has been invited to perform in Sibiu Romania which is a European Capital of culture at this time. To make the transformation from theatre to cinema, young and ambitious the young actress dives into the deep waters in the movie industry in the island. After her graduation Tanya continues mastering her technique by participating in different workshops. She has been working with names such as Ivana Chubuck, Patrick Regis and Anthony Meindl. To master her craft and to get to know how the industry works Tanya has worked with Casting Directors such as Nancy Bishop, Jeremy Zimmerman, Kimberly Graham, Donna McKenna, Francesca Bradley, Ruth Key etc. At the beginning of this year, the actress has been invited to perform a showcase in NYC in front of names such as the Emmy nominee Casting Director Kimberly Graham "Homeland" and Alexis Atkinson "Law and order". Those are the few stops of her career....to be continued.....
